

Project Management

Northampton, Marriott Hotel

06 June 2019

This course has been created for anyone who manages projects in the workplace, or who is involved with projects. It is an introductory level course, for those with no formal training or those who would like to refresh their current knowledge.

We will cover the reasons that projects are different from routine tasks, the importance of planning and the key techniques to maximise the chances of success.

You will explore how to:

- Define the purpose of a project
- Identify the tasks that are required
- Identify and communicate with any stakeholders
- Creatively generate solutions to problems
- Plan the activities and accurately sequence them
- Identify the tasks that will determine whether you meet your deadlines
- Manage the risks

Programme:

9:00am	Registration
9:30am	Introduction / Looking at the nature of projects & making them succeed
11:15am	Coffee
11:30am	Best Practice in Project Management & defining the purpose
1:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Project Planning
3:15pm	Tea
3:30pm	Risk & Communications Management
